

Operations Manager Chattanooga, Tennessee

The Facilities Management division is looking for an Operations Manager based out of Volkswagen in Chattanooga, Tennessee. This position is responsible for the achievement of plant goals through supervision of personnel, completion of administrative duties, and communication with the plant.

Requirements:

- Bachelor's degree in business or engineering.
- 2-5 year's experience in managing and scheduling employees to perform cleaning and quality assurance measures as related to a high volume paint department or other labor intensive industrial cleaning.
- Must have 2 years management or team leader experience.
- Knowledge of paint systems preferred.
- Prior experience in automotive, industrial, and maintenance setting required.
- Professional experience and ability to communicate will all levels in a fast-paced, multi-branch business environment.
- Ability to work with minimal supervision with a high degree of self-motivation.
- Must possess an understanding of automotive plants with the ability to schedule and motivate manpower in an effort to increase efficiency and effectiveness of the operation

Responsibilities:

- Coordinates work schedules and manpower needs.
- Works with team to complete assigned tasks.
- Ensures the completion and quality of all tasks as established within the language of the work schedules.
- Communicates and reviews disciplinary practices to team leaders to ensure consistency.
- Orders supplies and manages all of the locations inventory reports.
- Responsible for interfacing with the customer to maintain proper production.
- Communicates with subordinates in regards to safety, operations and human resources.
- Contributes to the plant cost reduction effort by instructing subordinates in the most efficient use of production machines and materials.
- Completes all annual reviews of associates who are direct or indirect reports.
- Complete administrative tasks such as documenting attendance, customer requests, and status reports.
- Input equipment performance through spreadsheet analysis and report and fix any quality control issues.
- Perform other duties as directed.

Please send resume and salary requirements to hweissman@mpwservices.com

A Passion For Excellence

Corporate Office: 9711 Lancaster Road, SE Hebron, OH 43025

Phone: (800) 827-8790 Fax: (740) 928-8140

Web Address: www.mpwservices.com